Special Thematic Issue Announcement

Readers around the world – you are invited to contribute an article to the special thematic issue of FUTUREtakes, “Transcultural Perspectives and Impacts on the Future,” that is scheduled for publication in late 2006. The issue will provide a forum for diverse perspectives on the future and will also focus on lifestyles and cultural values – that is, which ones are likely to survive in 2025 and which ones will become marginalized or extinct. In addition to promoting constructive dialog among ethnicities and cultures, the issue will help readers identify hidden culture-based assumptions that tend to limit futurist thinking.

We are planning to distribute the issue to embassies and to various international and ethnic organizations, both in Washington DC and in other national capitals.

Share your perspectives on the world stage! Send your articles to articles@futuretakes.org or contact us for further information.
